

Cranston Herald

Cranston Herald Thursday, March 4, 2010

"Olympic Village"

Inspired by the Vancouver Winter Olympics students at Carriage House Day Care, Cranston, hosted a series of Olympic games that mimic the international event, Thursday. Students participated in events such as: curling, hug the ball races, crafting your own ice sculpture, and for the closing ceremony the Olympic theme song was played while students received their medals. Picture at right, Pre-scholars Daisy Cox, Javien David and Anna Sophia Wong go for the gold in the curling. (Herald photos by Darcie Di Saia)

BIG WINNER: Audra Mc Donnell hold up her award for the camera.

COOL CREATIONS: Students get creative at the ice sculpture station.

CLOSE CALL: Pictured from left, "Hug the Ball" teammates Stella Joyce and Abigail Waring win their heat against Javien David and Sam Collier by a margin.